

Global Democratic Governance

University of St.Gallen

2011 - Kick-off Workshop

The Causes, Consequences and Democratic Legitimacy of International Institutions

June 9-10, 2011

Program

Day 1: Thursday, June 9, 2011

#	Time	Panel
	8:30-9:00	Registration
	9:00-9:15	Welcome
1	9:15-11:00	Panel 1: Democracy Beyond the Nation-State: General Approaches
	11:00-11:15	Coffee Break
2	11:15-1:00	Panel 2: Governance, Democracy and International Law
	1:00-2:15	Lunch
3	2:15-4:00	Panel 3: The Response to the Financial Crisis
	4:00-4:15	Coffee Break
4	4:15-5:45	Panel 4: Legitimacy & Effectiveness of Dispute Settlement
	7:30	Dinner

Day 2: Friday, June 10, 2011

#	Time	Panel
1	9:15-11:00	Panel 5: Democratic Legitimacy & Accountability of International Institutions
	11:00-11:15	Coffee Break
2	11:15-12:45	Panel 6: Governance, Aid and Development
	12:45-2:00	Lunch
3	2:00-3:45	Panel 7: Non-State Actors & Legitimacy
	3:45-4:00	Coffee Break
4	4:00-5:45	Panel 8: The Future of Global Governance

Workshop organizers:

Samia Costa
Assistant Professor of Political Economy
samia.costa@unisg.ch

Andreas von Staden
Assistant Professor of International Organization
andreas.vonstaden@unisg.ch

Hilde D. Engelen
Programme Manager
hilde.engelen@unisg.ch

Thursday, June 9, 2011

1. Democracy Beyond the Nation-State: General Approaches

Chair: Andreas von Staden (University of St.Gallen)

1. Daniele Archibugi (Italian National Research Council, IRPPS; University of London, Birkbeck College)
“Cosmopolitan Democracy: Paths and Agents”
2. Jan Aart Scholte (University of Warwick)
“Reinventing Global Democracy”
3. Jens Steffek (Technical University Darmstadt)
“The Foundations of Output-legitimacy in International Governance”
4. Ingo Take (University of Greifswald)
“A Comparative Study of the Democratic Legitimacy of International, Transnational and Private Forms of Global Governance”

2. Governance, Democracy, and International Law

Chair: Thomas Burri (University of St.Gallen)

1. Steven Wheatley (University of Leeds)
“The Democratic Legitimacy of International Law”
2. Stephanie Bijlmakers (KU Leuven)
“Effects of Foreign Direct Investment Arbitration on State’s Regulatory Autonomy Involving the Public Interest”
3. Julia Sattelberger (Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg)
“The Authority of International Organizations in Global Governance – Taking the Case of the World Bank and the OECD in Development Cooperation”

3. The Response to the Financial Crisis

Chair: Samia Costa (University of St.Gallen)

1. Simon Evenett et al. (University of St.Gallen)
“The Resort to Protectionism during the Great Recession: Which Factors Mattered?”
2. Randall Germain (Carleton University)
“Financial Governance after the ‘Great Freeze’: Recalibrating the Nation-State/Global Governance Balance”
3. Robert Wolfe (Queen’s University)
“Did the Protectionist Dog Bark? Transparency, Accountability, and the WTO during the Global Financial Crisis”
4. Antoaneta L. Dimitrova (Leiden University)
“Democratic Politics against International Institutions? The Greek Crisis as Manifestation of the Tensions between Democracy, Globalization and National Sovereignty”

4. Legitimacy & Effectiveness of Dispute Settlement

Chair: Michael Waibel (University of St.Gallen)

1. Arlo Poletti & Dirk De Bièvre (University of Antwerp)
“Cooperation in the Shadow of WTO Law: Why Litigate When You Can Negotiate”
2. Annegret Flohr (Peace Research Institute Frankfurt)
“The Privatization of (Judicial) Remedies in Global Governance - In Search of an Analogy”
3. Theresa Squatrito (Stockholm University)
“Opening the Doors to the WTO Dispute Settlement: State Preferences on NGO Access as Amici”

Friday, June 10, 2011

5. Democratic Legitimacy and Accountability of International Institutions

Chair: Andreas von Staden (University of St.Gallen)

1. Omer Gokcekus and Dennis Nottebaum (Seton Hall University; Westphalian Wilhelms-University of Münster)
“Enlargement and Corruption in the EU: A Race to Bottom or Top?”
2. Barbara Guastaferrero and Manuela Moschella (University of Naples "Federico II"; University of Trento)
“Coming Full-Circle - The Representative Democracy Turn”
3. Alexandra Lindenthal (University of Bremen)
“Accountability and Climate Protection - The "Self-Legitimizing" Strategies of International Economic Organizations”
4. Thorsten Hüller (University of Bremen)
“On Infeasibilities of Cosmopolitan Democracy - Lessons from the European Union”

6. Governance, Aid and Development

Chair: Samia Costa (University of St.Gallen)

1. Cindy Daase (Freie Universität Berlin)
“International Governance via Shared Sovereignty Arrangements between International (Donor) Organisations and Weak States”
2. Andrea Schapper (University of Hildesheim)
“Multilevel Governance Institutions for Implementing Children’s Rights: Exploring the Case of Bangladesh”
3. Yariv Welzman (Ashkelon Academic College)
“Development Failure and the Failure of Democracy Aid”

7. Non-State Actors & Legitimacy

Chair: Mathieu Rousselin (University of St.Gallen)

1. Mark Starmanns (University of Zurich)
“The Democratic Legitimacy of International Social Standards Initiatives”
2. Michael Strange (Roskilde University)
“Legitimacy in the Age of Networked Global Governance”
3. Direnç Kanol (University of Siena)
“Lobbying Regulations and Democracy: The Question of Political Equality of Interest Groups Functioning at the EU level”

8. The Future of Global Governance

Chair: Hilde Engelen (University of St.Gallen)

1. Christian Bueger (University of Duisburg-Essen)
“Liberal Hope and Technocratic Fears: Reviewing Contemporary Technologies of Global Governance”
2. Merve Mert (University of Gothenburg)
“Future of Global Governance? 'Global' is an Institution, a Process, and Discursive Practices: International Governance, the Empire, and Cosmopolitan Democracy”
3. Jan Hauke Plaßmann (J.W.G University Frankfurt)
“Towards a Transnational Understanding of the Modern Concept of Popular Sovereignty”
4. James Davis (University of St.Gallen)
“A Skeptical View of Global Governance”