The research methods, including general advice on databases and research software. The students may attend summer school courses. You may ask for more information about registration, courses, and crediting at GPEF. Students and alumni are invited to attend the Department of Economics, SEPS: Seminars offered by: St.Gallen the first principles of Economics to advising the Swiss Federal Council on the very fulfilling, as she is supportive and encourages everyone to pursue their own high practical relevance. And no matter what topic you bring up, Monika always pulls so fascinating and unique. Working with Monika is not least interesting because of its stimulates the public discussion and influences decision makers.

Our Economic, political and social science perspectives
SEPS Blog “COVID-19”

Projects such as perfecting her violin skills and finally fulfilling the dream of a family out a short, amusing anecdote from her treasure trove of experience.

For the future, we wish her the possibility to see new places and to take a step back

High practical relevance. And no matter what topic you bring up, Monika always pulls so fascinating and unique. Working with Monika is not least interesting because of its stimulat...