On 27th and 28th January, the project “Gauging Global Governance: The Effectiveness of Transnational Public-Private Governance Initiatives and Intergovernmental Organizations” held its inaugural workshop. The project is led by Oliver Westerwinter and funded by the Swiss National Science Foundation and examines the conditions under which different types of global governance institutions perform well. The workshop brought together experts in the study of international organizations and global governance from around the world and generated insightful discussions for the project team and guests alike.
Congratulations

GSERM
The GSERM Global School in Empirical Research Methods at the University of St.Gallen is an integrated programme teaching research methodology.

The next GSERM will take place in St.Gallen from 3 - 19 June 2020.

DIA students may attend summer school courses. You may ask for more information on registration, courses and crediting at dia@unisg.ch

Data Consulting
The data consulting team provides advice for HSG students and faculty who analyze data as part of their research projects. The consulting focuses on research design and research methods, including general advice on data bases and research software. Our philosophy is to provide “help to help yourself”. Thus, we support you in the initial design of a study and/or in case of specific methodological questions at later stages. The new homepage provides further information about the consulting process and the consultants.
