Critique of Love – Love as Critique
Socio-philosophical Perspectives

International Workshop at the University of St. Gall, Switzerland
2-3 December 2016
Friday, 2 December 2016
Room 01-U127

13.15-13.30: Opening Words

13.30-14.30: Federica Gregoratto (St. Gall)
"Love as Agonist Interdependence. Considerations on Love Matters with and against Marx and Hegel"

14.40-15.40: Tatjana Noemi Tömmel (Berlin)
"Is Love What We Need? Thinking with Hannah Arendt about the Function of Love in the World"

Coffee Break

16.10-17.10: Martin Hartmann (Luzern)
"Love and the Psychology of the Decent Society. Some Critical Remarks on Nussbaum’s Recent Political Philosophy"

17.20-18.20: Vincent Kaufmann (St. Gall)
"Perversion and Capitalism"

19.30: Dinner

Saturday, 3 December 2016
Room 01-U114

09.00-10.00: Estelle Ferrarese (Amiens)
"Love and Coldness in Adorno’s Moral Philosophy"

10.10-11.10: Heikki Ikäheimo (Sidney)
"Love, Freedom and Power"

Coffee Break

11.25-12.25: Penelope Deutscher (Chicago)
"Love and Misrecognition"

Lunch Break

13.45-14.45: Daniel Loick (Frankfurt a.M.)
"Anti Love Politics"

14.55-15.55: Stephanie Bethmann (Basel)
"Everybody Needs Somebody. Love’s Lessons on the Pitfalls of Autonomy in an Empirical Perspective"

15.55-16.15: Final Discussion