Workshop
“Common(ing) Struggles”
May 2nd – 4th 2022, University of St.Gallen

Monday, May 2nd (HSG Library Building, 1st Floor, Room 09-114)
18h15: Care and the Commons: Experiments in Alter-politics
(Key-Note, followed by an Apéro riche),
Miriam Ticktin (New School/ CUNY Graduate Center)

Tuesday, May 3rd (Katharinensaal, St.Gallen City Library)
12h-12h30: Welcome and Intro, Jelena Tošić and Andreas Streinzer (University of St.Gallen)

12h30-14h30: Panel Socialities
• Rethinking divergent utopias: Consensus, accountability, and voice in Brazil’s squats, Heike Drotbohm (University of Mainz)
• “From the Sea to the City”: rethinking transnational commons from the municipality, Antje Scharenberg (University of St.Gallen)
• Aff-Active Citizenship: Grounding Participation, Inclusion and Exclusion on Zurich’s Brachen, Sabrina Stallone (University of Bern)
Discussant: Paula Bialski (University of St.Gallen)

15h-17h: Panel Spaces
• Swiss Commoners’ struggle for the right Balance: ontologies, identities and responses to market and state pressures, Tobias Haller (University of Bern)
• Commons, solidarity and infrastructures in Greece, Dimitris Dalakoglou (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
• Elites invoking the commons: The techno-utopias of the Indian National Knowledge Portals, Lindsay Vogt (University of Zürich)
Discussant: Federico Luisetti (University of St.Gallen)

Wednesday May 4th (Walk to the “Wiesli” & Katharinensaal, St.Gallen City Library)
9h-11h30: “Commoning St.Gallen: A walk to the “Wiesli””, Niklaus Reichle (University of St.Gallen)

12h-14h: Panel Imaginaries
• Imaginaries of crisis, commons, and postcapitalist futures: limits and practices of overcoming, Katharina Bodirsky (University of Konstanz)
• Denying, reversing, and appropriating: Anti-gender social media communication by radical right-wing political voices, Violett Zentai (Central European University)
• Exclusionary collectivities – imaginaries of commoning, practices of expulsion in Austria, Andreas Streinzer (University of St.Gallen)
Discussant: Insa Koch (University of St.Gallen)

14h30-16h: Final Discussion incl. closing comment by Miriam Ticktin

For abstracts visit: https://moralisations-of-inequality.org/newsblog