Open Day for prospective undergraduates

Thursday, 21 October 2021

Information Desk
09.30 - 16.15 Information desk with students in the Library Building

German-language presentation about undergraduate studies (slides in English/German)
10.30 Entry (Audimax, 09-010)
10.45 Welcoming address: Prof. Dr. Thomas Zellweger, Vice-President
11.00 Overview of degree courses at the University of St.Gallen:
Dr. Pascal Iten, Director Executive Staff Studies & Academic Affairs

Guided tour of the campus with lunch
12.15 - 14.00 Students show interested groups of visitors around the campus. Joint lunch in the Mensa restaurant. Clarification of individual questions.
Languages: German, French, Italian, English

Taster lecture
14.00 - 14.20 Prof. Dr. Nora Markwalder: «Darf man im Strafprozess foltern?»
(09-010; German)

Presentation of undergraduate majors
14.30 - 15.00 - Business Administration (09-010; German)
- Economics (09-011; English)
- International Affairs (09-012; English)
- Law (09-110; German)
- Law and Economics (09-112; German)
- Computer Science (09-114; German)
15.15 - 15.45 - Business Administration (09-010; English)
- Economics (09-011; German)
- International Affairs (09-012; German)
- Law (09-110; German)
- Law and Economics (09-112; German)
- Computer Science (09-114; German)

Questions concerning admission
09.30 - 10.30 / 13.00 - 14.30 / 15.30 - 16.15
Answers to individual questions concerning admission for students with foreign university entrance qualifications (at the information desk).

Information about the Joint Medical Master St.Gallen (HSG/UZH)
14.30 – 15.00 Presentation (Room 01-010, German)